

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 63

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution authorizing the President to disapprove or reduce an item of appropriations.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 11, (legislative day, MARCH 3), 1993

Mr. SIMON introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution authorizing the President to disapprove or reduce an item of appropriations.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled
3 (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol-
4 lowing article is proposed as an amendment to the Con-
5 stitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all
6 intents and purposes as part of the Constitution if ratified
7 by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States
8 within seven years after its submission to the States for 9 ratification:

1 “ARTICLE —

2 “The President may reduce or disapprove any item
3 of appropriation in any Act or join resolution, except any 4 item of appropriation for the legislative branch of the Gov-
5 ernment. If an Act or joint resolution is approved by the 6 President, any item of appropriation contained therein
7 which is not reduced or disapproved shall become law. The 8 President shall return with his objections any item of ap-9 propriation reduced or disapproved to the House in which 10 the Act or joint resolution containing such item originated.
11 The Congress may, in the manner prescribed under sec-
12 tion 7 of the article I for Acts disapproved by the Presi-
13 dent, reconsider any item disapproved or reduced under 14 this article, except that only a majority vote of each House
15 shall be required to approve an item which has been dis-
16 approved or to restore an item which has been reduced 17 by the President to the original amount contained in the 18 Act or joint resolution.”.
